Ilfracombe, EX34 8EY

A beautiful example of a contemporary family home with panoramic views across the valley and out towards the Bristol Channel. This well kept four bedroom detached house has been designed with the bedrooms on the lower floor creating an outstanding, light filled living space on the upper floor to make the most of its truly special location. Externally, it boasts manicured gardens that wrap all the way around the property as well as a large south westerly facing decking area and sun trap roof terrace. The property is located within touching distance of the 15 acre Cairn Nature Reserve, with its many woodland walks and Tarka Trail Cycle route, and is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac overlooking the popular Bicclescombe Park, with its tennis courts, lakes and the community hub Bicclescombe Mill Tea house and gardens. Internally, this family home has been cleverly designed to incorporate the magnificent views while allowing for an abundance of natural light and is finished to a high standard. Other benefits include gas central heating, double glazing and additional storage in the spacious, boarded, attic.

Ilfracombe town offers a variety of independent shops, theatre, art galleries, restaurants and bars, plus seasonal festivals and recreational activities. The picturesque seafront and harbour area is home to artist Damien Hirst's iconic 'Verity' statue at the harbour entrance. In addition is the exciting new water sports centre and café making the harbour a hive of activity.

North Devon has a wealth of simply stunning golden sand beaches and has long been a mecca for British surfers. The area has recently been declared a 'world surfing reserve', one of just 12 places on the planet along with the Australia's Golden Coast and Malibu in California. For a change of scenery Exmoor National Park offers breath taking rolling countryside, perfect for avid walkers.
