Flat 4, Saxonbury House, 94 West Street, Ryde, PO33 2NX

£155,000

The white rendered elevations of Saxonbury House are the perfect contrast to lawned communal grounds which surround it. The building is situated at the seaward end of West Street leaving just a pleasant stroll down to the beaches which Ryde are so well known for. The first floor position of Flat 4 affords 'front row' seats to stunning views of the sea including Ryde's iconic pier projecting out into The Solent. This wonderful seascape is framed by the large sliding sash windows of the lounge/diner so one can enjoy this everchanging view from the comfort of your armchair. As the daylight fades the manmade lighting of the mainland skyline and The Spinnaker Tower offer another dimension to the lovely views. Voluminous high ceilings feature throughout the flat creating a feeling of space and large window apertures ensure plenty of natural light. All rooms feed off the generous hallway including the study which with its eastward views of the sea and town could well be an appealing work from home office. Both the bedroom and kitchen are comfortable rooms and the shower suite is a more recent improvement to the property. The location of this flat is hugely convenient being only a few hundred yards from the bustling town centre at Ryde leaving a wealth of retail shops and associated services almost on your doorstep. Bus routes, the Island train line and the mainland passenger connections are all within striking distance from this handy position and parking for the flat is to the rear of the building accessed via Spencer Road. Such is the appeal of Flat 4 we feel sure that whether you are looking for a permanent residence, commuter friendly home or a holiday home it will be a well worthy choice.
