Suitable to move straight into but at the same time offering huge potential for improvement, this property could well be the answer for many house hunters. It's clean and tidy interior includes dated elements such as the old fashioned kitchen and the heating system but will be well worthy of your attention. The layout is typical to some degree yet the kitchen at 13'6 long is larger than most and upstairs this translates into having a shower room and adjoining dressing room plus two comfortable bedrooms. There are two reception rooms to the ground floor, a cosy lounge with feature fireplace and a separate formal dining room cleverly opened up to create more space. The gardens are modest in size yet offer plenty of space for alfresco dining, sun bathing and a storage shed. Whether you are downsizing to benefit from this more central position or looking for a family starter home we feel sure you should come and see this one for yourself. Both buses and trains can be found along St John's Road at the end of the street and a 10 to 15 minute walk will see you right into the heart of the bustling town centre. Here you will have a wonderfully broad selection of retail shops and services to choose from including a major supermarket. The beach is equally close to hand and this popular coastal town of Ryde is well known for its miles of sandy beaches and waterside facilities. Highspeed mainland passenger links leave regularly from the seafront for extended shopping trips to the mainland and commuting. The nearest park is Monkton Mead where there is a children's play area and a large open grassed space for budding footballers. Dover Park will be your closest junior school and this is just a few minutes walk from this well placed property.
