This beautiful, Grade II * listed, 14th century period home is located in the heart of Scarborough's Old Town close to the harbour. Being a former sea captain's home, and at one point a medieval pub, it is believed to be one of the oldest properties in Scarborough. In recent years it has undergone a scheme of updating by the current vendors, sympathetic to the properties age and importantly retaining it's character, charm and an abundance of period features. The accommodation itself briefly comprises of an entrance hall with stairs leading to the basement level where you will find a generous open plan kitchen/diner (ideal for entertaining) and built in utility cupboard. To the ground floor are two generous reception rooms including the parts of the former medieval pub. To the rear is further entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor landing with further doors to a shower room and two double bedrooms with the master benefiting from an en-suite bathroom. To the second floor is a further substantial bedroom/hobbies room and separate w/c. The property despite its age 'in our opinion' is offered to the market in good order having undergone a scheme of updating by the current vendors (details available upon request) The vendors have retained the period features throughout the updating including feature range, exposed beams and paneling, feature inglenook fireplace, original bar and so much more. The property does also now benefit from gas heating via a modern condensing combination boiler. Being located within the Old town means the property affords excellent access to the foreshore and therefore a wealth of amenities and attractions including local shops, a choice of popular eating and drinking establishments, the harbour, Scarborough's South Bay and beach. Offered potentially with NO ONWARD CHAIN. Internal viewing cannot be recommended highly enough to fully appreciate this truly unique period home with over 700 years of history and character.
