DESCRIPTION

A superbly proportioned late Victorian terraced house situated in an ideal location neighbouring one of the most highly sought after tree roads and within walking distance of both the village of Hale with its range of individual shops, restaurants and bars and railway station and the town of Altrincham with its highly popular Market House and Metrolink commuter service into Manchester. The property is also positioned within the catchment area of highly regarded primary and secondary schools and 150 yards distance is Stamford Park with tennis courts and recreation areas.

Typical of the era it is difficult to appreciate from the exterior the extent of the accommodation within and much of the original character remains with panelled doors and decorative ceiling mouldings complemented by tall ceilings.

Approached beyond a panelled hardwood front door with opaque glazed inserts the entrance hall features natural wood flooring which continues into a bay fronted sitting room with the focal point of a contemporary living flame gas fire. There is an elegant dining room with full height fitted cupboards and revealed brick fireplace to the chimney breast recess alongside a tiled hearth. The adjacent fitted breakfast kitchen has ample space for a dining suite and provides access to the enclosed courtyard.

At first floor level there are three excellent bedrooms generous bathroom/WC with white suite and chrome fittings. The landing provides access to the loft space and further potential exists to create additional accommodation subject to obtaining the relevant approval.

Gas fired central heating has been installed together with PVCu double glazing.

The landscaped grounds are certainly a feature and include an enclosed rear courtyard leading onto a private expanse of lawn surrounded by a variety of mature shrubs and a hedge/walled perimeter.
