

Penscombe Barns
Lezant | Launceston | Cornwall

Town • Country • Coast

A stylish 2 bedroom (2 en-suite) newly converted barn situated in a complex of similar properties with a handsome additional detached stone outbuilding which could make the ideal home office or studio. The property is currently being converted by well know reputable builders and features a high spec modern finish. The property features a pleasant garden with brick wall border and a double garage.

The property is nearing completion and comes with a 6 year professional consultants certificate, blending original features such as the stone façade alongside a modern finish including stylish new kitchen and bathroom. The ground floor features a spacious open-plan sitting room and kitchen with front facing window and a door to the rear. The first of the bedrooms is on the ground floor and features an en-suite shower room. On the first floor there is a spacious double bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

The detached stone building is a real asset to the property and offers great possibilities either as a home office, gym or hobbies/craft room. Along the lines of the property itself, the barn blends its original stone features alongside a modern contemporary finish. The development is situated next door to the popular Tre Pol Pen restaurant and farm shop, offering buyers a stylish eatery on their doorstep!

Situation

The property is conveniently located for the A388 which connects the towns of Launceston and Callington, both of which offer schools, supermarkets and various shops in the centre of both towns. Local amenities include the popular Tre, Pol, Pen Restaurant & Farm Shop. The Springer Spaniel public house in Treburley and a local primary school in the neighbouring village of Trekenner. The location provides convenient access to Plymouth and also the A30 which links to the West of Cornwall and into Devon.
