

Market Street

Stratton | Bude | Cornwall

Town • Country • Coast

A quirky single bedroom maisonette situated in the heart of this popular coastal town offering great facilities and access to the North Cornwall coast. The property is found in a historic converted building and features some nice character features including flagstone slate floor in the kitchen.

The building is accessed via the front door into a communal hallway with a door leading into the property in question. There is a kitchen with a side window and stairs rising to the first floor and a door into the living room which features a high vaulted ceiling. From here there is a hallway which also operates as a breakfast area with a built in breakfast table, leading into a well appointed bathroom. From the hallway a door leads into a useful enclosed courtyard area. On the first floor is a double bedroom with a window at the front and a storage cupboard.

The property has no onward chain and may suit first time and investment buyers alike.

Situation

Stratton is an attractive market town offering good access to Bude and the lush sandy beaches of the North Cornish coast alongside Holsworthy in the other direction and Launceston beyond. The town features 2 Public Houses, a historic Church and a Primary School plus a Local Store.

Directions

The postal code for the property is EX23 9DF. What Three Words 'wardrobe.minus.surprises' will take you to the property. The property can be found along Market Street as you approach via the main road through the town on your right hand side.
