A substantial detached 5 bedroom family house situated on a popular development with gardens, parking and a garage with accommodation spread over 3 floors. The property offers spacious and flexible living accommodation which includes 2 en-suite bedrooms and potential of reception rooms or a home office on the ground floor and first floor.

On the ground floor there is an entrance hallway with 2 reception rooms which could potentially be opened up to provide one generous reception room. There is a spacious kitchen and breakfast room with a utility room just off. On the first floor there are 2 generous bedrooms, one being en-suite and a store room, the other bedroom is currently utilised as a living room. On the second floor there are 3 further bedrooms with 1 of the bedrooms being en-suite plus a family bathroom.

Externally there is an enclosed lawned garden, parking and a garage.

The property has been successfully let over recent years and offers an ideal letting opportunity for an investor. Currently used as a house of multiple occupation (HMO) with 6 rental rooms spread over 3 floors. Those interested in the rental situation in terms of income and management can speak to the vendors agents View Property.

Situation

Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as “the gateway to Cornwall” Launceston is centred one mile west of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between Cornwall and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline alongside Plymouth and Exeter. The town itself offers a variety of individual businesses from boutiques to fine food shops, blending with occasional national outlets including Tesco, M&S Food and Costa coffee. Local facilities include a leisure centre, medical facilities and well regarded primary and secondary schooling.
