

Enjoying a fantastic view towards Launceston, the iconic Norman castle and the Kensey Valley is this detached house with 4 bedrooms (3 en-suite). Offering reverse level accommodation the kitchen is open plan to the dining area and offers a superb social space. Outside, the property has a private South facing enclosed garden, integral garage and plenty of off road parking.

You enter the property into a porch which opens into a hallway with stairs to the lower ground floor. The kitchen/dining room is open plan and has windows enjoying a great view towards the castle. The kitchen area has a range of modern eye and base level units plus various integrated appliances. A door takes you into the integral garage. Beyond the kitchen is a dining area perfect for family occasions. The separate sitting room again enjoys a wonderful view. Doors open out to a raised balcony overlooking the rear garden. To the front of the property are 2 bedrooms, one of which has an en-suite bathroom.

The lower ground floor offers 2 further double bedrooms each with a respective en suite shower room. The master bedroom is particularly good size and is dual aspect with French doors opening out onto the garden. There is ample space for bedroom furniture. The other double bedroom is a nice guest room and again has access out to the garden. Off the hallway is a door through to a large storage room which is currently used as a utility & pantry. There is also a storage cupboard off of the hallway. The lower ground floor could be reconfigured (STP) for multi generational living.

In front of the property is an attractive brick paved driveway for 3/4 vehicles. Adjoining the driveway is a garage with an electric roller door. To the rear of the property is a private South facing enclosed rear garden which has been landscaped with low maintenance gardening in mind. There is a large patio, flower borders and areas of gravel. There are paths down either side of the property.

Situation

Launceston is an ancient town steeped in History with the imposing Launceston Castle overlooking the town and surrounding area. Referred to as 'the gateway to Cornwall' Launceston is centred one mile (1.6 km) West of the River Tamar, which constitutes almost the entire border between the Cornish peninsula and Devon, the A30 is ideally located on the fringe of Launceston connecting to the rest of Cornwall with great access to the beautiful Coastline whilst providing great access to Plymouth and Exeter and beyond. The town itself offers a variety of individual businesses from boutiques to fine food shops, blending with occasional national outlets including Tesco, M&S Food and Costa coffee. Local facilities include a leisure centre, medical facilities and well regarded primary and secondary schooling.
