79 Rosedale Lane

Port Mulgrave, TS13 5LD

Guide Price £299,950

Very seldom do these properties become available on the open market, and with good reason!!! Located on The Cleveland Way between Staithes and Runswick Bay, a charming 3 bedroom stone cottage offering spectacular views over the sea and cliffs with off street parking garage and extensive garden.

Located on the Cliff top, in the historic and former Ironstone exporting port of Port Mulgrave. Originally built to house the Pay office, with the Mine Manager occupying the property next door, 79 Rosedale Lane is steeped in history, and must be viewed to be fully appreciated. Occupied by its current owner since 1952, this charming Residence has many original features including a working coal stove in the main living room. The property has stunning views to the front and side aspects, and the placement of it's many windows allows the sea and cliff views to be seen from most rooms. The property is on The Cleveland Way, between Staithes and Runswick Bay, offering perfect access to coastal routes, The property further benefits from off street parking, garage and a large rear garden. In need of some refurbishment, a fantastic Coastal Retreat, or an all round perfect Family Home
