THE PROPERTY

Step into a world of timeless allure at Oakfield, a beautiful period detached home nestled in the heart of Peel. This captivating property boasts an abundance of original features, and irresistible charm that transports you to an era of refined elegance.

You enter the property through a traditional vestibule and into a welcoming entrance hallway that sets the tone for the rest of this fabulous residence. The ground floor unfolds into a seamless blend of spaces, featuring an open-plan sitting room and drawing room, where natural light dances through the large windows. The adjoining dining room provides a captivating setting for hosting memorable gatherings, while the well-appointed kitchen offers a delightful space for culinary creativity. Additionally, a convenient utility area, shower, and WC on the ground floor ensure modern practicality.

Upstairs there are five thoughtfully designed bedrooms, each bearing witness to the graceful history of the house. These rooms provide both comfort and space. The family bathroom has been modernised with a classic white suite complemented with modern fixings and tiles. An additional bathroom on the second floor completes the upper floors, offering moments of relaxation and indulgence.

Outside, Oakfield continues to captivate with its carefully curated surroundings. Off-road parking, adjacent to the attached garage, provides convenience and security for your vehicles. The rear of the property reveals a low-maintenance garden, a haven of serenity and natural beauty. Take pleasure in the tranquil ambience while admiring the fish pond and the splendor of mature shrubs. Traditional outbuildings offer storage and workshop space.
