

Llanwern Road, Newport, NP19 9GF

Guide Price £290,000

Nestled within the charming surroundings, this delightful home is a 1930's semi that exudes timeless appeal. As you step into the welcoming entrance hall with parquet flooring and downstairs WC, the property unveils its elegant character. An additional entrance vestibule ensures practicality, offering ample space for boots and coats.

Beyond the inviting living room, a notable extension seamlessly connects to a luminous garden/dining room, featuring large self-cleaning double-glazed glass panelled roof that bathes the space in natural light. The kitchen, situated in a smaller extension, is accessible through a spacious utility room with separate sink, larder, and washer/dryer connections. There is also an additional large bay fronted reception room to the front, which is ideal for a formal dining or living room or could be knocked through.

Upstairs, a modern bathroom and generously sized airing cupboard/storage unit accompany the main bedroom, which has been transformed with original wood flooring expertly sanded and stained. The second bedroom, a large double, boasts substantial built-in L-shaped wardrobes, while the third bedroom offers versatility as a cozy single bedroom.

The first-floor landing is bright and airy, thanks to a strategically placed window over the stairs. Moving outside, the property stands proud on a spacious plot with a large
