Location

East Ruston is a delightful rural village located between Broadland and the North East coast. The Broadland town of Stalham is approximately 3.5 miles away with its own facilities including a Health Centre, Junior and High Schools, Post Office, Tesco Supermarket and a range of High Street shops and food outlets. East Ruston itself has a first school, village hall and a public house, The Butchers Arms. The nearby East Ruston Vicarage Gardens are a famous visitor attraction.

Weavers Way Footpath

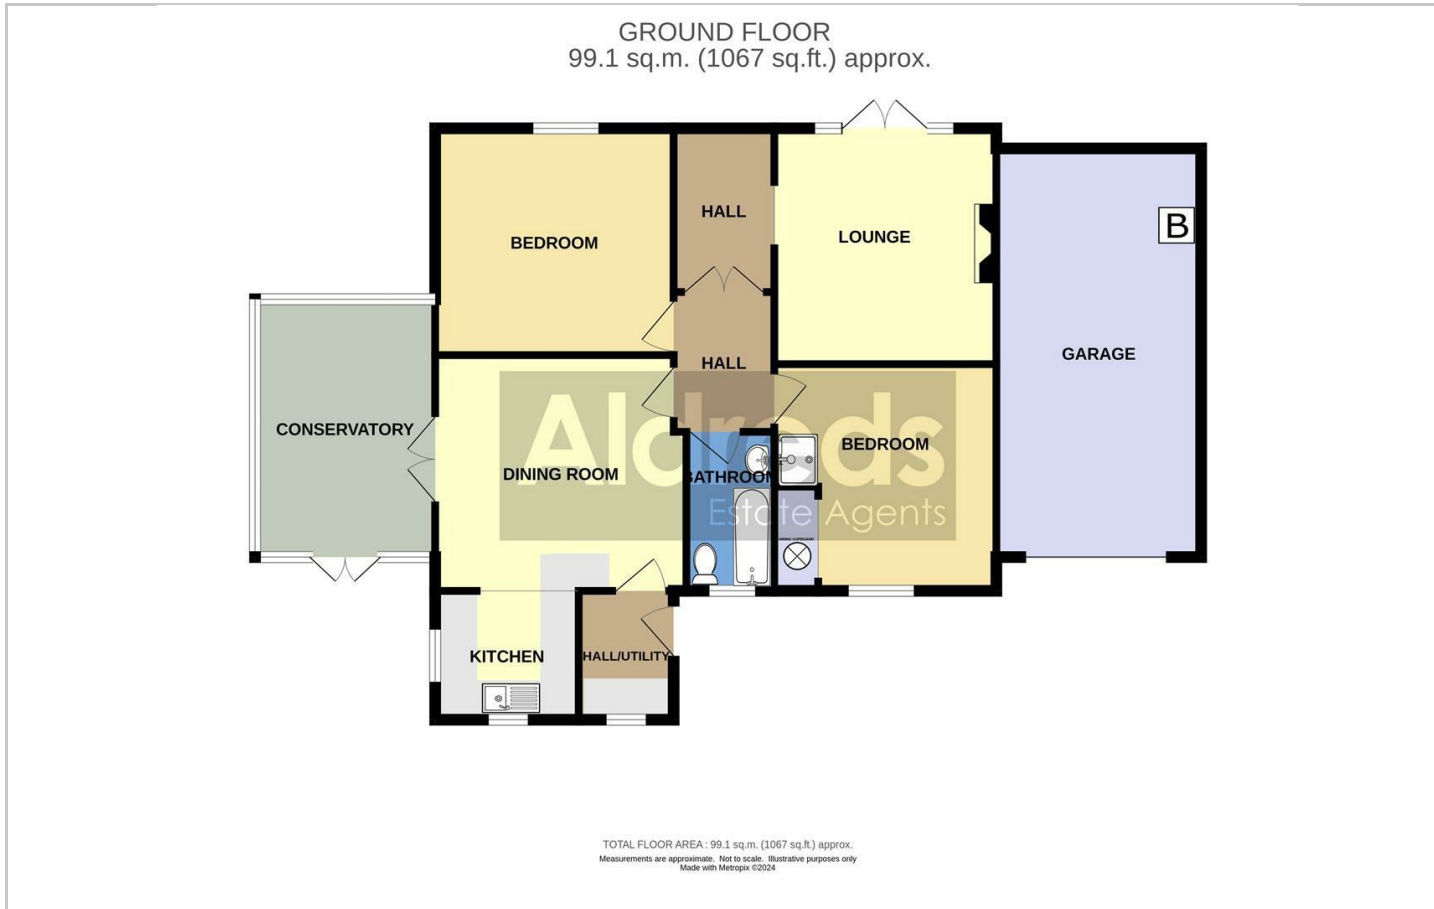

The property is located on a dead end road which leads to the Weavers Way Footpath, a popular 61-mile long Norfolk footpath, much of which follows the old trackbed of the Aylsham to Great Yarmouth railway line, which was operated by the Midland and Great Northern Joint Railway and was closed in 1959.
