Description

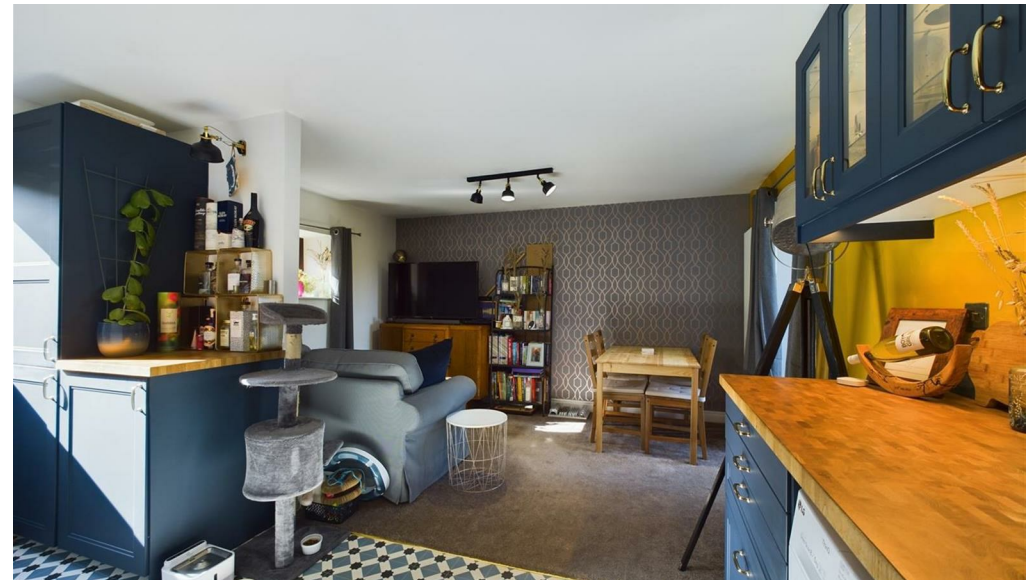

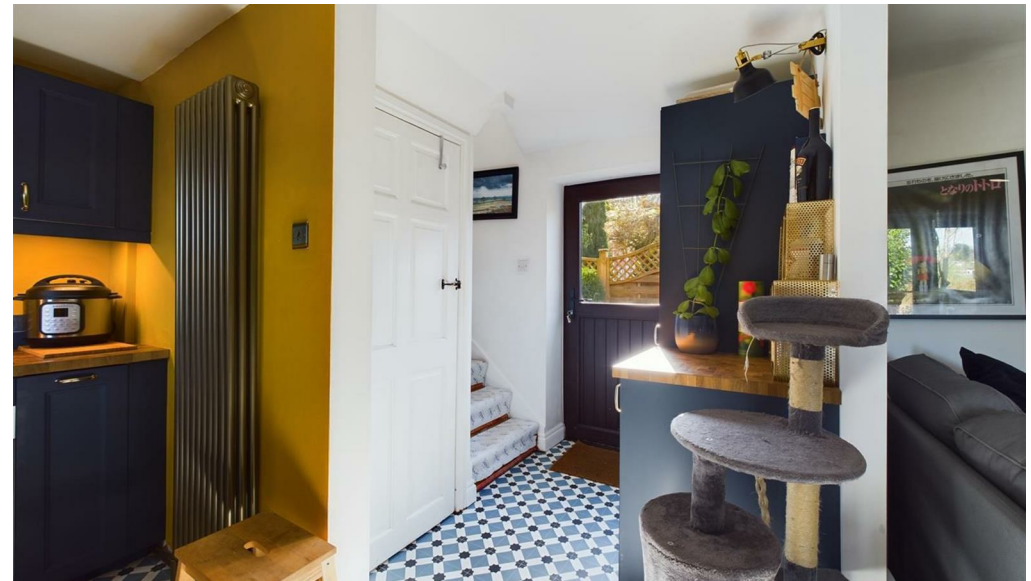

This charming 1-bedroom cottage presents both tranquility and modern comfort. Step through the door into an inviting open-plan layout, seamlessly connecting the lounge, dining room, and kitchen, creating a versatile space for both relaxation and entertaining. Natural light falls through the French doors, lighting the interior while offering views of the north-facing back garden—a private space with an element of privacy to enjoy your morning with a coffee.

The cottage has a modern yet bold design that defines this home. Convenient off-street parking ensures ease and accessibility, allowing you to seamlessly transition into the comfort of your home.

The property is positioned in a quiet locale, in close proximity to Scarborough Hospital.

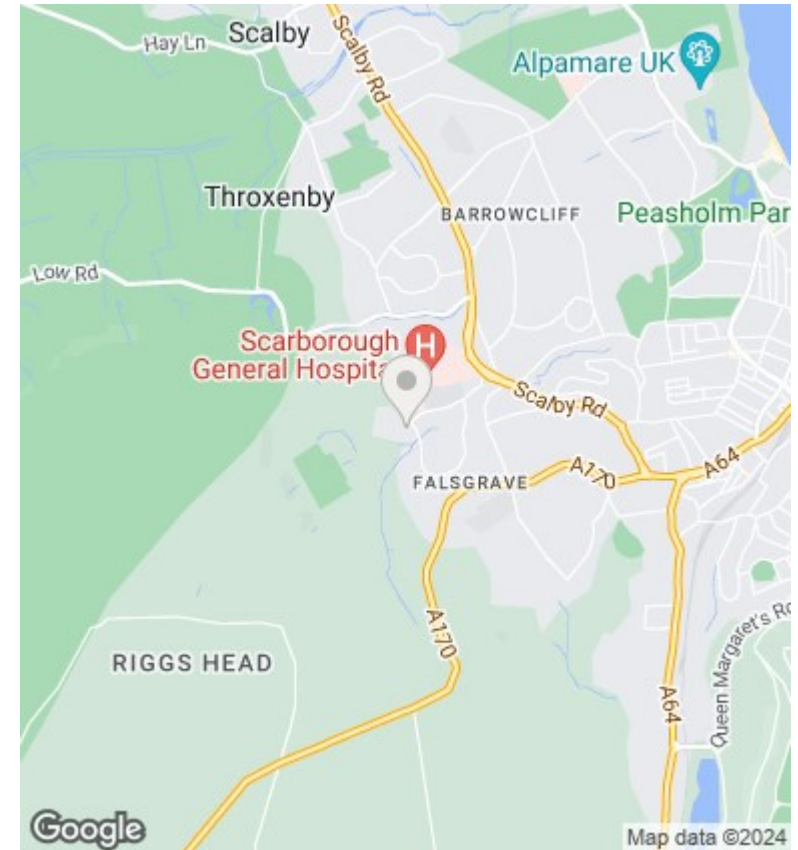

Recent enhancements further elevate the design of this cottage, including new carpeting on the staircase and landing, as well as a new kitchen. Every detail has been thoughtfully considered to work with the space available.
