Brook Street, Watlington
Offers Over £500,000

Welcome to 'Pilgrim Cottage'... Dating back to the 17th century, this beautifully presented detached property retains many of its original features from the exposed beams to the Inglenook fireplace creating a cosy focal point to the lounge. Extended to the rear, the interior has a lovely modern and contemporary feel thanks to the stunning kitchen/breakfast room with bi-folding doors opening the space up to the rear garden and a roof lantern flooding the room with natural light. Featuring a spacious amount of living space including a dining room and lounge with steps rising to the study area, a handy cloakroom/utility, three bedrooms with an en-suite to the main and plenty of built-in storage. If you love properties of the past but need to live in the present, this picturesque property offers more than first meets the eye!
