WOODTHORPE GROVE

Unique in design, generous in living space and carefully considered in every detail and finish

Nestling in an secluded suburb of Sandal, just two miles south of Wakefield, Woodthorpe Grove is an exclusive collection of just seven unique new homes amidst six acres of mature woodland style grounds.

Formerly the residence and grounds of the Bishop of Wakefield, this collection of individually styled homes is made up of four sizeable new villas and the reinstatement of the main house. Built in 1885 and cleverly reimagined to deliver three highly contemporary, highly spec'd homes behind the original facade.

From the transformation of the main house into three inspiring homes to the security, peace and serenity afforded by a gated parkland development, living within Woodthorpe Grove takes you close to nature and away from the hectic life of the city.

Exclusive. Secluded. Versatile.

Modern family living demands that a new home is versatile enough to accommodate every change in circumstance that comes along. Whether that's a new addition to your family, the creation of a home office or your children growing up and requiring more of their 'own space'.

Woodthorpe Grove has been crafted with this in mind. Each exquisitely finished home occupies a generous plot, is grand in proportion, unique in design and versatile in layout. Materials, fixtures and finishes are of the finest quality and the craftsmanship unrivalled.

Built with energy efficiency at heart, each home features Air source heating, high performance glazing and is highly insulated. Plots 1, 2 and 3 feature PV Solar panels, plots 4, 5, 6 and 7 feature underfloor heating on the ground floor. Every green opportunity has been considered from the EV charging points to the garage roofs which are finished in a material that holds onto water and aids bio diversity.

The result is a wonderful collection of exclusive homes that are hidden from the road in a quiet, natural and undisturbed spot meaning living at Woodthorpe Grove lets you enjoy being on the inside!

Please note: Internal CGI's featured in this brochure are of plot 4.

Welcoming spaces, complemented by the finest materials and the specialist touch of our skilled craftsmen

Our design collaboration with Porcelanosa Kitchens and Villeroy & Boch Bathrooms provide a premium finish, with each selected designer opting for the highest specification combined effortlessly with current colour statements and styles.

Each home is spacious and comes equipped with the contemporary, sleek and practicality of stone worktops and pristine gloss surfaces, alongside soft to the touch porcelain tiles for shower areas. Minimalist in their aesthetic, these understated natural materials bring a sense of the outdoors inside, complementing each home's earthy and neutral colour palette - the perfect way in which to create a warming feel for you and your family, whilst also adding a hint of sophistication.

It is features like these combined with the unique design, Crosbie Homes exceptional build quality and pinpoint attention to detail that elevate these magnificent homes to an altogether different level.

The Location

Sitting on the south side of the River Calder on the road from Wakefield to Barnsley, Sandal has long been regarded as the premier residential location.

Woodthorpe Grove is within easy reach of a range of schools, local bars, restaurants and recreational amenities. A broader range of amenities are available within the city of Wakefield and metropolitan Leeds, and an excellent national motorway network is within a five minute drive and easily accessible.

The historic Sandal Castle is close at hand and offers a fantastic opportunity to walk further to the Pugneys nature reserve and the glorious trails around Newmillerdam.

Occupying a secluded setting in a parkland style environment this landmark development presents an unrivalled location which includes a local railway station, ready access to the M1 and M62 motorways and literally round the corner from Wakefield Golf Club.

■ Motorway Networks 5 mins ■ London 2.5 hours ■ Wakefield 2 miles

CROSBIE HOMES

Our history and heritage

Delivering bespoke homes in prime locations, Crosbie Homes is the private residential arm of Morris & Spottiswood. An ambitious company with a very clear strategy, we aim to deliver high quality, beautiful and flexible new build homes by embracing the latest technologies to allow us to maximise energy efficiencies and sustainability whilst at the same time redefining quality and craftsmanship.

We understand that a residential property isn't just a building – it's a home and we go the extra mile to make it an outstanding one.

Strong ethics and customer care are the defining principles of our business and are what we stand for. We work tirelessly to create bespoke environments where people want to live and will thrive in.

Design and detail is our passion and we strive to embed innovation in every home we build.

Such sharply defined focus is what makes Crosbie Homes different and a unique and compelling alternative to large scale house builders.
