Description

An incredible opportunity for a 0.25 acre site in the heart of Penrith town centre. Currently trading as an antiques and salvage yard and split into a number of independent trading outlets, this prime location has wonderful 2000 sqft stone building, which has previously been used as a residential home and a café, a significant building which is around 3000sqft with an undercover seating area and outdoor kitchen, a large gated yard and a host of future flexible options, whether you are looking for a light industrial yard, storage space, a live/work environment with the conversion of the existing building into a home (STP) or to relocate an existing business premises, the opportunities are endless!

Sitting in the popular Brunswick road area of Penrith town, the Gateway to the Lakes, this site is ideally located with all local amenities, shops, schools and transport links just a stones throw away. The M6, West Coast Mainline and Lake District National Park are a short distance away.

This is a rare chance to own a prime site, in the heart of town for whatever your needs may be!
